

PROGRAM PRIDE POINTS

- One-on-one relationship with mentor
- Small classes and personal attention
- Newly designed curriculum tailored to each student's needs and research area
- Diverse research opportunities
- 37 faculty members
- 46 students from across the US and around the world

PROGRAM COSTS

Good news! All graduate students in the MPT Graduate Program are financially supported with full stipends starting at $25,000 per year. Health insurance and tuition are also paid by the program (student fees are paid by the student). Living expenses in Columbia are lower than the national average.

PROGRAM FACULTY

James Amos-Landgraf	Marc Johnson
Deborah Anderson	David R. Lee
Ulus Atasoy	Christian Lorson
Michael Baldwin	Shan-Lu Liu
Brenda Beerntsen	Mark McIntosh
Charles R. Brown	Susan McKarns
Pamela Brown	Michael Misfeldt
Donald Burke-Aguero	Helen Mullen
Elizabeth Bryda	David Pintel
Michael Calcutt	Bimal Ray
John Cannon	Stefan Sarafianos
Dawn Cornelison	Jerod Skyberg
Mark Daniels	George Stewart
Dongsheng Duan	Bill Stich
Craig Franklin	Emma Teixeira Pernas
Alexander Franz	Judy Wall
Huatao Guo	Habib Zaghouani
Catherine Hagan	Guoquan Zhang
Bumsuk Hahm

HOW TO APPLY

Application Requirements:

- 🐾 Bachelor's degree from an accredited school
- 🐾 GRE scores
- 🐾 TOEFL scores (for international, non-resident applicants only)
- 🐾 Transcripts from all post-secondary education institutions attended
- 🐾 Résumé/CV and personal statement (why you are choosing our program, your personal/career goals, etc.)
- 🐾 Application form available at:
<http://medicine.missouri.edu/mmi>

Most applicants residing in the US and under consideration for admission, are invited for a campus visit. If you have any questions, please contact the program using information listed on the back of the brochure.