

Funding Opportunity

The UROC-H Public Humanities Project Grant offers UROC-H Scholars the opportunity to translate their humanities research for the public. This high-impact practice encourages UROC-H scholars to make meaningful connections between their humanities scholarship and the needs of the local community and non-academic audiences through new models of social engagement.

Examples of Projects

- Blogs, websites, digital storytelling
- Zines
- Texts, curricula, anthologies
- Artwork, exhibitions
- Dramatic performances
- Biographies, memoirs
- Panels, mixers, discussions series
- Documentary films & photography, online video channels
- Museum project
- Guided tours of historic places
- Development of digital platforms
- Multimedia publications
- Oral history
- & much more

Important Information

Approvals:

- All applicants are required to discuss project ideas with their Faculty Mentor prior to submitting a proposal.

Project Funding:

- Project awards will be determined upon review of each project proposed budget.
- Funding Request should be between $100.00 - $1,000.00.
- Student stipend award of $500.00 once project is complete.

Project Planning and Implementation Timeline:

- Fall 2019 - Spring 2020
- Projects can be implemented any time between November 2019 and April 2020, although all projects must be completed by April 30, 2020
- Required to present research and PHP during UC Merced's Research Week

Application Requirement:

- Project Title
- Project Description (500 words or less)
 - Public need for project
 - Project goals & objectives (tasks)
 - Expected public impact
- Expected Date of Project Completion
- Itemized Budget of Proposed Project
 - Description of all expected cost
 - Other funding sources that will be used for the project

APPLY NOW

Complete and Submit an Application:
<http://uroc.ucmerced.edu/uroc-h-public-humanities-project-grant>

 Only open to UROC-H Scholars (individuals or a team) who have completed the Summer Undergraduate Research Institute (SURI)*